COMPREHENSION

Directions : In this section you have a few short passages. After each passage, you will find some items based on the passage. First, read a passage and answer the items based on it. You are required to select your answers based on the contents of the passage and opinion of the author only.

Passage – I

Not all agricultural societies become civilizations, but no civilization can become one without passing through the stage of agriculture. This is because at some stage in the development of agriculture, as productivity improves, not all people would need to be engaged in producing or procuring food. A significant number of people could be freed up to pursue other activities such as building walls or monuments for new cities; making new tools, weapons and jewellery; organizing long-distance trade; creating new artistic masterpieces; coming up with new inventions; keeping accounts; and perhaps constructing new public infrastructure such as irrigation canals that further improve the productivity of agriculture, thus realizing even more people to do new things.

This can happen, of course, only if a society that has transitioned to high-productivity agriculture has also, at some stage in its evolution, found a way to channel the bonanza of free time into other work fruitfully. In the ancient world, this often involved creating new ideologies and new hierarchies or power structures to coerce or otherwise convince large groups of people to devote their time to the new tasks for very little reward.

1. Which one of the following statements is true according to the author ?

(a) Agriculture has always been part of all civilizations.

(b) Not all civilizations have undergone the processes of agriculture.

(c) Agriculture gave birth to new civilizations.

(d) Communities discontinued agriculture to become civilizations.

2. A significant number of people were sent to carry out other work from agriculture because

(a) there were insufficient agricultural products.

(b) people were needed to build monuments, weapons, jewellery, etc.

(c) there were sufficient agricultural products.

(d) this enabled the development of civilizations.

3. What kind of agriculture based societies would emerge as civilizations ?

(a) Societies which achieved high productivity in agriculture had the opportunity to find time for other work.

(b) Societies which depended on agriculture completely moved to other fruitful work so as to move to many places.

(c) Societies which transitioned from one stage of agriculture to another.

(d) Societies which could not do agriculture for lack of resources moved to other work.

4. People as groups were convinced to do new work through

(a) reward, force and community persuasions.

(b) ideologies, hierarchies and power structures.

(c) excessive agricultural products.

(d) very high rewards.

5. Which word in the passage means 'changeover' ?

(a) Transitioned

(b) Channel

(c) Coerce

(d) Hierarchies

Passage – II

When we pick up a newspaper, a book, or an article, we come to our task with certain preconceptions and predispositions. We expect to find a specific piece of information or be presented with an argument or an analysis of something, say, the likelihood of recession in the next six months or the reasons why children can't read. We probably know a little about the book or article we are reading even before we start. There was, after all, some reason why we chose to read one piece of writing rather than another.

Our expectations and predispositions may, however, blind us to what the article and its author is actually saying. If, for example, we are used to disagreeing with the author, we may see only what we expect to see and not what is actually there. Day after day in our routine pattern of life we expose ourselves to the same newspaper, the same magazine, even books by authors with the same perspectives. In order to reflect on our reading habits and improve our skills we need to break out of this routine, step back and look at what we are doing when we read.

6. According to the author, which one of the following statements is not true ?

(a) Reader's preconceptions influence their reading.

(b) Readers have expectations when they read an article or a book.

(c) Readers look for specific information in any of their readings.

(d) Readers assume that everything they read will have new information.

7. Our expectations and predispositions may, however, blind us because

(a) we may not get the actual ideas of the author.

(b) we will get the actual ideas of the author.

(c) we may disagree with the author.

(d) we will agree with all the ideas of the author.

8. One of the ways to improve our reading habits is to

(a) break the routine by changing the time of reading.

(b) change the types of topics we read.

(c) break the routine of reading the same newspaper.

(d) stop reading for some time and then restart reading.

9. Which quality does the author here advocate, to be a good reader ?

(a) Being objective to the ideas of the author

(b) Having preconceptions and predispositions

(c) Having continuous routines

(d) Disagreeing with the author

10. Which word in the passage means 'viewpoints' ?

(a) Preconceptions

(b) Predispositions

(c) Pattern

(d) Perspectives

(b) RPQS

(c) PQRS

(d) QRSP

42. S1 : "Every person carries in his head a mental model of the world — a subjective representation of external reality," writes Alvin Toffler in Future Shock.

S6 : When we begin to think we can do so only because our mind is already filled with all sorts of ideas with which to think.

P : It organizes our knowledge and gives us a place from which to argue.

Q : This mental model is, he says, like a giant filing cabinet.

R : It contains a slot for every item of information coming to us.

S : As E.F. Schumacher says, "When we think, we do not just think; we think ideas."

The correct sequence should be

(a) PSRQ

(b) SPRQ

(c) QRPS

(d) RQPS

43. S1 : Biology is the study of life in its entirety.

S6 : Classical descriptive and clueless biology found a theoretical framework in the evolutionary theory of Darwin.

P : In later years, the focus was physiology and internal morphology or anatomy.

Q : Darwinian ideas of evolution by natural selection changed the perception completely.

R : The growth of biology as a natural science during the last 1000 years is interesting from many points of view.

S : One feature of this growth is changing emphasis from mere description of life forms to identification and classification of all recorded living forms.

The correct sequence should be

(a) RSPQ (b) SPRQ

(c) QRPS (d) PQRS

44. S1 : Biology is the youngest of the formalized disciplines of natural science.

S6 : Life expectancy of human beings has dramatically changed over the years.

P : However, the twentieth century and certainly the twenty-first century has demonstrated the utility of biological knowledge in furthering human welfare, be it in health sector or agriculture.

Q : The discovery of antibiotics, and synthetic plant-derived drugs, anaesthetics have changed medical practice on one hand and human health on the other hand.

R : Applications of physics and chemistry in our daily life also have a higher visibility than those of biology.

S : Progress in physics and chemistry proceeded much faster than in biology.

P : A weaver may have some yarn, some cotton and other instruments required for weaving cloth.

Q : A family farm may own a plot of land, some grains, farming implements, maybe a pair of bullocks and also the labour services of the family members.

R : Every individual has some amount of the goods and services that one would like to use.

S : In fact, the list of goods and services that any individual needs is so large that no individual in society, to begin with, has all the things one needs.

The correct sequence should be

(a) PQRS (b) RSPQ

(c) QPSR (d) SRQP

46. S1 : Farming is the main production activity in the village.
S6 : The new ways of farming need less land, but much more capital.
P : These have allowed the farmers to produce more crops from the same amount of land.
Q : Over the years there have been many important changes in the way farming is practised.
R : But in raising production, a great deal of pressure has been put on land and other natural resources.
S : This is an important achievement, since land is fixed and scarce.
The correct sequence should be

(a) QPSR (b) RSPQ

(c) SRPQ (d) PRSQ

47. S1 : Britain was the first country to experience modern industrialization.
S6 : This gave people a wider choice for ways to spend their earnings and expanded the market for the sale of goods.
P : This meant that the kingdom had common laws, a single currency and a market that was not fragmented by local authorities and uneven taxation.
Q : It had been politically stable since the seventeenth century, with England, Wales and Scotland unified under a monarchy.
R : By then a large section of the people received their income in the form of wages and salaries than in goods.
S : By the end of the seventeenth century, money was widely used as the medium of exchange.
The correct sequence should be

(a) QPSR (b) PSQR

(c) RSQP (d) SRQP

48. S1 : For several million years, humans lived by hunting wild animals and gathering wild plants.
S6 : As a result, conditions were favourable for the growth of grasses such as wild barley and wheat.
P : This led to the development of farming and pastoralism as a way of life.
Q : This change took place because the last ice age came to an end about 13,000 years ago and with that warmer, wetter conditions prevailed.
R : Then, between 10,000 and 4,500 years ago, people in different parts of the world learnt to domesticate certain plants and animals.
S : The shift from foraging to farming was a major turning point in the human history.
